Section Seminars

On November 7-9, 2008, representatives of Timuquan Lodge 340 and ten other lodges will travel to Tanah Keeta Scout Reservation in Tequesta, FL to attend the 2008 Section Seminars for a weekend of training and fellowship. The S4 Section leadership and Aal-Pa-Tah Lodge 237, the service lodge, have been working hard to plan out a full weekend of training and fellowship activities. A number of training sessions will be offered from a wide variety of topics.

In addition, the key three from all of the lodges will attend the Council of Chief's meeting. Our own Marty Shermetaro will present Timuquan's plans for hosting next year's section conference. Our theme is "Together Fast and Firmly".

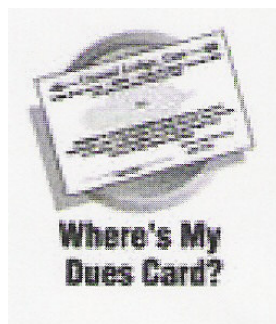

Lodge Dues

A Scout is Thrifty

As 2008 comes to an end, it's time to pay your Lodge dues. The collection of these dues is vital as we are financially independent from the council.

The dues for 2009 is $15.00 and covers the national fees plus the lodge's administrative costs such as the production and mailing of six publications. The deadline to pay your dues is January 11, 2009. Any Arrowman who has not paid their dues by January 11, 2009 will have to pay a late registration fee of $20.00. If a former Arrowman wishes to have their status reinstated, they must pay a reinstatement/late registration fee of $25.00. You must maintain a BSA registration to be an OA member.

A year pass is only $95.00 and covers all four lodge weekends assuring the member of a weekend patch. Section events and functions held away from the weekends will carry their own fee.

Please continue to provide your support in planning, leadership, and "sweat equity" as we move forward in this arduous year. Youth, I call on you to support your Chief, not just in words, but in action. We need your ideas and enthusiasm to show what Timuquan Lodge is all about. We need you to conduct elections, staff events, and serve on our committees. In short, to show what leadership in service is all about by example. Adults, remember that our only purpose for being members at this point is to support these fine young men. Don't lose sight of the fact that our job is service, and service to make these youth successful and, by so doing, our lodge and our council, and to show our dedication to make good our promise of an active outdoor Scouting experience to all the youth we serve.

If you have not already done so, please consider joining us at Tanah-Keeta Scout Reservation on 7-9 November for Section Seminars. You will renew your excitement about the Order and meet friends who will be with you for life. You will get new ideas, share your thoughts, and receive training and guidance from experts. You'll see the Order's support of the study of Native (American Culture in action, and meet and talk with true students of those ways. And you'll spend time with some of the finest friends you will ever have - your Brothers in Timuquan Lodge 340 O.A.!

Yours in Brotherhood, Cheerfulness, and Service,
Eric Renker, Lodge Adviser

My Fellow Brothers,

I hope everyone had a great kick-off to their school year!! We have many commitments and responsibilities coming up in the next few months. First, University of Scouting is October 18 at Palm Harbor United Methodist Church. We have committed to help with set-up on Friday night, parking on Saturday morning, and clean-up/take down of lunch. If you would like to help out please contact our Community Service Chairman Cory Dewell, cdewell@mail.usf.edu. Second, Section Seminars is from November 7-9 at Tanah-Keeta Scout Reservation in Tequesta, FL. This weekend offers great training, fellowship with other lodges, and most of all FUN!! I would really encourage all of you to attend, it will enhance your knowledge of the Order and you will have a great time. If you are interested in going please speak to your Chapter Chief for transportation. Remember as Nutiket said "There, each of you placed your left hand on the shoulder of the candidate in front of you as a symbol of your purpose to return in service to your unit". Stay active in your unit, they are the ones who voted you in. I hope everyone had a great September and I will see you at Section Seminars.

Lodge Adviser's Corner

Mr. Eric Renker, Timuquan Lodge Adviser

As we approach the Section Seminars, please consider the burden we carry for the Order of the Arrow in the coming year: Section Conference in April, National Order of the Arrow Conference in August, work to improve our own Lodge's election and ceremonies teams, and constant calls on our time to support council and district events, such as Camporee, Tiger Growl, University of Scouting, WEBELOS Cross-overs, and Cub Scout Family Camps. Add to that our call to help encourage and promote troop camping at our own Sand Hill Scout Reservation for Summer 2009. Could there be any more that can be heaped upon us without causing us to bend and break?

Our presence in the Order of the Arrow speaks to the very heart of our character. As Brothers, we are dedicated to service and devotion to the welfare of others.

We were elected or appointed as members in recognition of our belief in and adherence to the Scout Oath and Law. Our service brought us here, and, lest we forget, those who chose us need us. There is nothing we face or will be required to do that, working together under the leadership you have chosen, will be anything less than a resounding success!

Arpeika Chapter Report

Yusuf El-Shihibi, Arpeika Chapter Chief

Mr. Eric Cupps, Chapter Adviser

My Brothers,

I would first like to thank all of the Chapter One members who showed up at the last weekend, and congratulations to all new ordeal members. I have a challenge I would like to extend out to all of the members of my chapter, and the whole lodge; go back to your troops and try to bring at least one member back to the weekends. This will help our lodge become stronger and larger. To all new ordeal members let me tell you this, get involved in the lodge. You can join a committee such as, Native Americans, ceremonies, chuckwagon, and many more. But do not forget that you have a higher duty to your own unit. We are also looking for members to help with the District Camporee, which is October 3-5. If you want to volunteer or need more information, please contact me at 727-810-1771, or by email at yusufel1790@yahoo.com. Now I hope to see you all at the winter conclave, and look forward to a long time of service with you.

Mr. Greg Papandrew, Chapter Adviser

As the Chapter Chief of Yayi Yaha, I am trying to form an e-mail communication list of all the members in our chapter. Please send me an e-mail to add your name to the list: sfritz1@tampabay.rr.com. We need each troop to sign up for an O.A. election in order to get as many people in our chapter as possible for the 2009 Section Conference to be held at Sand Hill! It would also be helpful for each Troop to have an O.A. representative that I could contact to relay information to their home troops.

It was great seeing you at the Fall Conclave!

Outina Chapter Report

Taylor Briggs, Outina Chapter Chief

Mr. Bob Hall, Chapter Adviser

Hello fellow Brothers:

Outina Chapter got off to a windy start this year with Hurricane Fay blowing through our Chapter Picnic in August. Not even Fay could keep away the 35 Brothers in attendance. We took pictures around our new Outina Chapter banner that Mr. Bob Hall, our Chapter Advisor helped to create. Outina proved to be the best chapter of all by collecting over 100 children's books to be given to a local school. We collected books all of the way up to our Fall Conclave.

Our Outina Brothers have signed up to help the Scout vs. Wild Camporee to be held at Camp Soule. Thanks to all who signed up to help with Parking and Security.

University of Scouting is on Saturday, October 18 at Palm Harbor United Methodist Church. Meet up with Kevin Ronayne at one of the conclaves if you wish to help.

In November, the lodges of Section 4 South will be meeting during the Section Seminars at Tanah-Keeta Scout Reservation in Tequesta, Florida. It is here where your leaders of tomorrow get involved in training and the lodge chiefs meet to talk about our Section and the upcoming Section Conference. Sign up to go and take the training. Who knows, you might be the next leader in our lodge.

Sign up now for a committee and fulfill your obligation of cheerful service. Some of our very own Outina Brothers are in charge of the committees for Section Conference and need your help: Ian Ronshausen, Chairman of the Trading Post, Matt Hall, Chairman of Quest Events, Tony Clock is Chairman of Security, and go and see Mr. Gieselman to help with the Section Conference Grill. Looks like the Outina Chapter has it covered. I am positive it will be a fun time for everyone.

Remember to sign up for your chapter and lodge events and to always and faithfully observe and preserve the traditions of the Order of the Arrow.

Yours in Cheerful Service,
Taylor Briggs

Lodge Officer Reports

What your Lodge Officers are up to.

Matthew Hall, Administrative Vice Chief
Mr. Scott Payne, Associate Adviser

Fellow brothers of the Wimachtendienk,

Before I go into my primary point, I first off want to offer my gratitude to all those that came to the Fall Conclave. Although the turnout was not the best, we all had a great time and did more work on preparing SHSR for Section Conference 2009, which everyone needs to help out at in some way, and several new worthy members joined our honored ranks.

To those new and to some old members I urge you, get involved. There are numerous ways to help my brother. Join a committee such as the Camping Promotions team which needs lots of help in creating a Where To Go Camping Guide. Become a much needed ceremonialist, and become a true keeper of the Order's traditions. Sign up to help in one of the Section Conference areas such as Quest which needs your help. Attend lodge, section and national events to experience true brotherhood. Participate in OA High Adventure. And lastly, serve in your community.

The main thing I want to discuss with you is the importance of the Order, and more specifically the obligation. The Order is not just some cool group of people that get together several times of year, rather it is a brotherhood of brothers bound by an obligation. We have all been inducted into this brotherhood and need to realize that the Obligation of the Order spells out our duties more clearly than any other person could ever try to explain. The Obligation calls us to be unselfish in service to the welfare of others, but as you probably notice it does not say in Scouting alone. My point to you, my brother, is that the Obligation is a true way to live. Our admonition is even more direct, love one another.

I once heard that a wise man will plant a tree whose shade he will never sit in. Take this advice and play it forward. Scouting and the Order has given us much, now it is our turn to give back. As Meteu says we will receive the "joy and contentment which is our sure reward for our unselfish service".

In closing, I would like to end with a quote from Allowat Sakima, the mighty Chieftain who says "those who choose you need you". Remember this, and live by the Obligation my brother.

Yours in the Brotherhood,
Matthew Hall , AVC

Brothers,

At the past LEC, it was proposed that a Lodge traditions book be made and published; it will be called the T-Book. I am taking it upon myself to create that book. If anyone knows of any traditions that are specific to our Lodge please let me know. I would like to have at least 20 traditions in the book, however, they should have credibility so the number is not concrete. I hope to get this book out by the Spring Fellowship so our members can start completing traditions by the Section Conference, which I know we will do a great job of hosting.

Camp Service, Marty Shermetaro
Mr. John Petruccelli, Camp Service Adviser

The work projects that were completed this past weekend were the re-tiling of the ladies restroom in the dining hall, painting the inside of latrines in campsites 5, 9, and 12, getting all the tent platforms stacked, getting a count of all the different style toilet seats throughout the entire camp that might need to be replaced, and the raising of the berm at the rifle range. Projects that were partially completed include the block work for the smoker, picnic table repairs (got 5 more finished), and the community service project crew made a big dent in the work that was requested of them.

We would like to give a BIG THANK YOU to all the brothers that helped out with the projects, but be aware that there are still quite a few projects that will need to be done at Sand Hill before we are ready to host the 2009 Section Conference. This means that some of us will be asked to give up a Saturday or three so that the remaining projects can be completed in time for the Section Conference.

TESTING THE BOW

We gathered as strangers 'round the campfire's glow, encouraged by others ourselves to better know.

We each tested the bow our resolve so to feel,
then walked into darkness to face our ordeal.

Kichkinet had urged us: "Be of strong will"
but my first test was to be a mere 'whip-r-wil'.

Meteu had warned: "To speak not a word"
so we all remained quiet - - except for that bird!

But the woods became silent, the forest still and we then fell asleep despite that loud 'whip-r-wil'

With sweat, clearing trails we toiled all the day,
hopeful that others would follow our way.

Though tired, we grew stronger, we worked now as one,
and knew that this challenge indeed had been won.

We gathered again, our ordeal at an end,
as Scouts, not as strangers, with many a friend.

Back to our troops and patrols we now go,
seeking out others - to come test the bow.

The Order of the Arrow

is a "thing of the spirit"

rather than of mechanics.

Fellow Brothers,

I am writing this article as 2009 Section Conference Chairman and as Camp Service Chairman. I would like to thank the 2009 Section Conference Committee for all the hard work and hours they have put into the conference already. We are truly blessed to have such great youth and adults leading this lodge!

Section Conference planning is going well. If you have not signed up on a committee, please do so. You can email me and let me know what you are interested in helping out with and I will direct you to the right person. My email is Mtrain921@yahoo.com. Thank you for your help in making a great section conference.

Camp service projects are well on their way. The Lodge Executive Board approved the budget to redesign the stage and sound tower at the shows arena. We depend on your attendance at these next few lodge weekends to get our camp ready for conference so please try and make it out for the weekend or just for the day on Saturday to help out and work.

As being Section Conference Chairman, I have had many unique opportunities and challenges that make me enjoy the Order more and more all the time. Thank you for everything you guys do for the Scouting movement.

Yours in Cheerful Service,
Marty Shermetaro, 2009 Section Conference Chairman

Brothers,

As many of you may or may not know, I will be serving as the Quest for the Golden arrow chairman at the 2009 Section Conference along with my adviser Mr. Paul Drouin. We cannot do this job alone. We will need help in this weighty responsibility and ask for your help. It is the goal of our committee to have at a minimum two youth and preferably one adult at every activity so as that any arguments that may arise, youth running the activity will have the backing of an adult. This means a large number of people as you can tell. Section Conference's main focus is the quest and we want it to be remembered for how great it was.

My brothers, as Allowat Sakima, mighty chieftain of our lodge says, "Those who chose you, need you" for "as the warrior draws the arrow most trustworthy from the quiver, you were chosen from many others". The same can be said for Section Conference, we need you to make Section Conference great.

Yours in the Wimachtendienk,
Matthew Hall, AVC
